

Cancer Patient Services respects your right to privacy. This policy summarizes what personally identifiable information we may collect, and how we might use this information. This policy also describes other important topics relating to your privacy. Cancer Patient Services reserves the right to modify this privacy policy at any time. We will promptly reflect any such modifications in these Web pages.

Information Collection

Cancer Patient Services will only collect personally identifiable information (such as name, title, company name, address, telephone number, or e-mail address) that you voluntarily provide through our Website or e-mail correspondence. We will collect general information (such as the type of browser you use, the files you request, and the domain name and country from which you request information) to improve our Web site and better meet your needs.

Use of Information

Before we collect any personally identifiable information, we will provide an explanation for the possible use of your data. The information you supply will be used by Cancer Patient Services to respond to your inquiries or supply you with requested information on Cancer Patient Services. Authorized third parties may be used by Cancer Patient Services to collect, track and process such information. It may be necessary, if required by law or if pertinent to judicial or governmental investigations, to release your personally identifiable information. If you have submitted personal information to Cancer Patient Services electronically and would like it removed or modified, please contact us. We will use every possible reasonable effort to comply with your request.

Free Monthly Newsletter Subscribers

E-mail addresses provided for the express purpose of subscribing to our free, monthly newsletter will only be used by Cancer Patient Services to transmit the requested information. We will never trade, rent, sell or otherwise distribute your e-mail address.
